

Pro Bruxsel?

Pro Bruxsel, the first and only bilingual political party, has ambition for Brussels !
Multiple-faceted capital, Brussels deserves a domestic and international influence on economical, social and cultural levels. That's why Pro Bruxsel...

- wants to stop the discriminations between Brussels citizen, just based solely on the language they are speaking.
- demands a multilingual educational system, that guarantees a decent job future for our children.
- wants the pre-tax retention to be held at the location workplace, and not where workers are living.
- aims at fighting efficiently an unprecedently high unemployment rate in one of Europe's richest regions.
- wants to promote economic development in non-polluting business sectors.
- aims at fighting traffic congestion by supporting environment-friendly transport means.
- demands decent and financially accessible housing for each Brussels citizen.
- wants Brussels to be recognized as a full-fledged region, as it is the case for the two other regions in Belgium.
- wants everyone to be able to enjoy Brussels' unique charms and mood.
